Stone Carving Workshop

Sculpting as a metaphor for life, love, and the pursuit of happiness!

We will explore the art of stone carving using hammer and chisel as we carve Indiana limestone, soapstone or alabaster. We will shape our stones into mythic forms and power symbols as we explore our own journey towards wholeness. This workshop is for beginners as well as advanced seekers of creative expression and healing. Come for one day or both days to get the most accomplished. Tools provided and stone is available for purchase.

Workshop Dates: Saturday & Sunday - August 1 & 2 10 am - 5:00 pm

Location: Brian's Studio • Poulsbo, Washington

Registration: Brian@BermanSculpture.com or phone 360-697-2288

What to Bring: Clothing that you are comfortable in and don't mind getting dusty, work gloves, good foot protection, and your own carving tools (optional). Bring an outdoor chair, a bag lunch, something to drink and a story to tell.

What is provided: Safety glasses, dust mask, ear protection and hand tools. Limestone will be available for purchase, priced at $.65/pound. Contact Brian to discuss the size of stone you want to work on. Beginners usually start with 25-75 pound stones.

Cost: $75 per day or $140 for attending both days.

Instructor: Brian Berman has been sculpting professionally for 16 years. His teaching style is personal and informative. Brian is an award-winning stone sculptor and has been teaching stone sculpting since '94 in the USA and Europe.
